"Washington Territory Transportation Company"

The following letter, received per steamer Sierra Nevada, via Victoria, would have reached us much sooner if sent directly per mail overland. We publish it however, as it contains much of interest to the people of this State having business with the mines, as well as to the miners and travelers generally. While to a great extent we endorse the doctrine that "competition is the life of trade," we apprehend that our correspondent will be less sanguine when he comprehends the magnitude of the improvements already completed by the O S N Company and the immense amount of money required to put an opposition route in equally good order. We do not desire to dampen the enthusiasm of any enterprising company but hope that the business of the country will soon justify not only a second but a third line of steamboats and that they may all flourish and prosper. It certainly speaks volumes for the future of our State when old and experienced business men are willing to expend so much capital in the establishment of a transportation business.

EDITOR OREGONIAN

The stern wheel steamer Cascades was launched from the yard of Grennan & Cranney on the 27th of July, and she will probably leave this place for Portland some time next week. A brief account of this fine vessel, as well as the Company to whom she belongs, cannot fail to prove interesting to the readers of the OREGONIAN, since both will be intimately connected in the future with the history of the navigation of the Columbia.

She is the property of Messrs Donahue & Kohl of San Francisco, and a number of gentlemen in New York, who see in the vast mineral and agricultural resources of your State, Idaho and Washington Territories, the certainty of so prosperous a future, that they have determined to invest a portion of their capital to aid in their development, expecting, and I think justly, a rich reward.

The Cascades is said to be the strongest and staunchest stern wheel steamer ever built on the Pacific coast. Mr H C Rees, of San Francisco superintended her construction, and the work certainly reflects the highest credit on his skill. The upper works are of cedar—her hull of fir. The planking on the sides is two and a half inches thick, the lumber free from knots and sixty to eighty feet long, equal her builders say, in point of quality, to the best North Carolina pine. The kelson is one hundred and fifty-six feet in length without a knot or splice, and on each side is a sister kelson, one hundred and fifty feet in length, likewise without a knot or splice. Her engines were made by Donahue, of San Francisco, and are high pressure, with seventeen inch cylinders and six feet stroke.

The Cascades will commence making regular trips from Portland to the Dalles in the beginning of September, and takes round the frame and lumber for a sister vessel got out on her moulds at Utsalady, which will be put together above the rapids, and will, it is anticipated be ready for running about the 1st of March next. The fine side wheel steamer Sacramento will be up from San Francisco in September to take her place in the line which will be completed for the present, by the addition of a large side-wheel steamer for which Grennan & Cranney are now getting out the lumber, and which will be built at Utsalady and ready early in the spring. She will be two hundred and thirty feet long, thirty four feet beam, and ten feet hold. Her propelling power will be, the first beam engine ever contracted on the Pacific Coast built by Donahue, with a cylinder fifty two inches in diameter and 11 feet stroke.

The title of the Company will be "The Washington Territory Transportation Company," and they expect to have steamers running as far as Fort Colville in about eighteen months. They intend to build railroads round the Cascades and are determined to invest so largely and liberally in permanent improvements, as to insure that ultimate success which cannot fail to attend their efforts when the wealth of your part of the country becomes more fully developed.

THE LECTURE THIS EVENING —The Rev Dr Bellows will address our fellow-citizens at the Methodist Church this evening, on behalf of the U S Sanitary Commission. We have no doubt, from the many eulogistic notices of this gentleman's oratorical powers, that the effort will be one to which all our citizens should endeavor to listen. The theme is a grand one, and when discussed with the Rev Dr's ability, cannot fail of awakening fresh interest in the cause of the sick and wounded defenders of our country. Let every body attend and go prepared to contribute with a continuation of that generosity for which they have earned the name.

SUCCESSFUL RECRUITING —The patriotic young men of California, says the Alta, are waking up to a sense of their duty and a comprehension of the fact that the army presents the best field of employment and advancement and the result is that recruiting for the California regiments is more active now than at any former time for years. Thirty-nine fine, hardy recruits—the best materials for an army in the world, were mustered into the service by Captain Fleming, at the office on California street on Tuesday.

The British Colonist says that Geo Hunter Cary for several years Attorney General of Vancouver's Island and British Columbia sent in his resignation recently which was accepted. Our neighbors seem to be highly delighted with this last and best act of Cary.

EARTHQUAKE —We learn from the Marysville Appeal that at five o'clock on the morning of the 19th inst that city was gently shook by an earthquake. It was also felt at Yuba City. The oscillations were north and south.

A FEMALE SHRIEKER —One of the [illegible] friends of Jeff Davis—shriekers in petticoats—the unfair kind General Butler had to do with at New Orleans—rode about our streets on [illegible] evening, shrieking hurrahs for Jeff Davis. A [illegible] was driving the buggy, whilst [illegible] engaged in cheering on the [illegible]. Whence she came, where she came from or where she lives we did not put ourselves to the trouble to [illegible] in Butlerism we at once [illegible] woman of the town.—Marysville Appeal

SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE DAILY OREGONIAN

LATER FROM THE EAST.

Dates to August 22.

NEW YORK Aug —22 —The World's special says:

HEADQUARTERS Army of the Potomac Aug 19 The flank movement of the 5th corps yesterday was a complete success.

Nearly all the [illegible] force has been withdrawn from the line [illegible] across the James to [illegible] the 2d and 10th corps. Only a strong picket [illegible] to guard the [illegible] front. Our men deliberately destroyed the track.

The Times says Warren is entrenched and reinforced. He intends to thoroughly destroy the Weldon road.

[illegible] half of all the rebels in Virginia [illegible] Shenandoah valley waiting for Sheridan and the other half holds the line from Petersburg to Richmond.

[illegible] of August 11th from the rear of Fort Morgan state that Granger has received heavy reinforcements from New Orleans and reinforcements have been sent from Pensacola.

Fort Morgan is now besieged by land and the fleet [illegible] bombard it on the 11th.

The rebels burned all the hospital buildings outside of the Fort, also the gunboat Gaines.

The monitor Manhattan threw a number of shells into the Fort and dismounted one gun before our forces [illegible].

HEADQUARTERS Army of the Potomac, Aug 21 Our losses at Weldon railroad are larger than reported. The rebels took 1500 prisoners. Our troops were surprised, many being in the ferry [illegible] the rain. The enemy first appeared about noon in front of the 3d division of the 5th corps. About 5 o'clock p m they charged in heavy force between the 5th and 9th corps and turned the flank of the former capturing a large number of prisoners. This line was forced back some distance when the 9th corps which was relieved on the night previous opened a fire checking the advance of the enemy and taking some prisoners. A heavy column of rebels at the same time charged the left of our line, west of the railroad held by the 2d division under Gen Ayres which they broke and took 100 prisoners of a regular brigade commanded by Gen Hayes. The enemy suffered much, his men lying thick over the field before dark. Our men were reformed and being reinforced a desperate charge was made to recover lost ground which was accomplished. We held at night the line taken from us in the afternoon.

Cols Earl and Hawthorne are reported as prisoners and Gen Crawford was shot through the vest and shirt narrowly escaping capture. Lieut Clark of his staff, was shot in the arm. Captain Smith of Crawford's staff had three horses shot under him while rallying the men of various commands, and for a short time was a prisoner, but escaped.

Colonel Wheelock's brigade third division was flanked when they faced to the rear charged, and drove the rebels and took a number of prisoners. The entire number of prisoners captured was 210. We also took some stands of colors. Our loss is estimated at 5,000. No new skirmishing to-day. Both parties are intrenching. A battle is looked for at any moment. The enemy seems determined to regain possession of the railroad.

Aug 21 6 p m —Considerable artillery firing occurred on the left since 4 o'clock.

FORTRESS MONROE Aug 21 —The steamer City Point states that heavy cannonading began on Saturday night on our extreme left in front of the 5th corps which continued until 4 this morning. The fighting is described as of a most spirited character. It was caused by the enemy attempting to drive us from the Weldon railroad. At the last accounts they had failed to do it. The 5th corps had been reinforced. No doubt is expressed that we would hold our position.

CAIRO, Aug 21 —The New Orleans Era, Aug 17th says: Acting Master John Dillingham captured off Sabine Pass a year and a half ago while in command of the ship Morning Light, has arrived in this city. He was paroled by Gen Magruder to effect his own exchange for Capt Fowler. He reports that the rebel authorities are anxious to exchange the whole crew who were marched from Camp Grace to Shreveport 300 miles and paroled for exchange and subsequently sent back to Camp Ford near Tyler. As the Federal authorities would not receive them there are now about 7,600 prisoners at Camp Ford, which is crowded and in an unhealthy state.

Gen Paine with a portion of his expedition, which went against Johnston's guerrillas, returned to Paducah Ky, at noon.

A large number of cattle and considerable salt and other supplies taken from the steamers at Sabine Pass was recaptured. Many horses and mules also were captured from the rebels in the country through which they passed and brought to Paducah.

Expiration of Service of the 1st Oregon Cavalry and 1st W T Infantry

EDITOR OREGONIAN

The following extract from the Sacramento Union is sent you with the hope it may attract the attention of the members of the new Legislature of Oregon. California in addition to these bounties gives all soldiers in volunteer regiments from that state five dollars a month in coin in addition to their pay from the General Government. The term of service of the 1st Oregon Cavalry expires from November to March next and of the greater portion of the 1st W T Infantry from February to July next. Either volunteers or drafted men will be absolutely necessary to fill their places. The extract is as follows:

NEW RECRUITS AND VETERANS —Adjutant General Evans of California has issued the following order under date of July 20th:

All concerned is hereby notified that under the provisions of an Act of the Legislature of the State of California entitled "An Act granting bounties to the volunteers of the State enlisted in the service of the United States for issuing bonds to provide funds for the payment of the same and to levy a tax to pay such bonds," approved April 4 1864, all persons enlisting and mustering into the service of the United States as new recruits from this State on or after the 4th day of June 1864 are entitled to receive from the State a bounty of $160 payable as follows:

Forty dollars to be paid upon the certificate of the mustering officer (to be given at the time the soldier is mustered into the service,) attested by the commanding officer of the company or regiment in which the soldier is mustered and countersigned by the Adjutant General of the State; the balance to be paid by installments of $20 each as hereinafter stated.

All persons enlisting and mustered into the service of the United States, on and after the 4th day of April 1864 as veterans (those who have served for more than six months in the army of the United States, marines, regulars or volunteers are veterans under the law) are entitled to receive from the State a bounty of $100 payable as follows:

Fifty dollars to be paid upon the certificate of the mustering officer (to be given at the time the soldier is mustered into the service,) attested and countersigned as in the case of a new recruit as above stated, the balance to be paid in installments of $10 each as hereinafter stated.

All persons enlisting on or after the 4th day of April 1864 and before the 1st day of July 1864 will be entitled to receive payment of their first installment, on the 1st day of October coming and thence successively every six months thereafter.

All persons enlisting on or after the 1st day of July 1864 and before the 1st day of October 1864, will be entitled to receive payment of their first installment after enlistment on the 1st day of January 1865 and thence successively every six months thereafter.

All persons enlisting on and after the 1st day of October 1864 and before the 1st day of January 1865 will be entitled to receive payment of their first installment on the 1st day of April, 1865, and thence successively every six months thereafter, and thus continuing the same [illegible] until the whole [illegible].

The California and Oregon steamers leave to San Francisco [illegible] shippers to the consignment of Mr C B Lawrence, whose card is to be found in our advertising columns [illegible]. All [illegible] should be [illegible] upon Wells Fargo & Co.

Views of the Fiscal Policy of the late Secretary

The following is taken from the Bankers Magazine published in the city of New York, an old and standard periodical, representing the financial interests of that great emporium. Its loyalty and hearty support of Government measures since the beginning of the war have been of the most marked and unequivocal character. Since the following article was written a further depreciation of our currency has taken place, as was to be expected.

There is a general conviction in the minds of those most familiar with the subject that the finances of the country have been sadly mismanaged and that a continuation of the policy adopted for some months past will lead to results extra agreeable [illegible] to the Government. The credit [illegible] United States Treasury of a large volume of paper money now amounting to over 750 hundred millions of dollars [illegible] accompanied by an inadequate system of taxation has gradually and rapidly undermined the confidence [illegible] of the country and thus disturbed prices [illegible] to such an extent that our whole [illegible] system [illegible] commotion.

The persistence with which these paper issues have been forced upon the country [illegible] principles of finance and [illegible] opposition to the views and warnings of the ablest men in the country.

The measures of the Treasury which we may say have met with universal condemnation and which have led to the present chaos in public and private affairs [illegible] loss of confidence in the Treasury management, may be enumerated as follows:

I An increase of paper currency from $150,000,000 as reported in July, 1862 to $810,000,000 as officially reported in May 1864. The latter is as follows:

United States notes legal tender	$431,000,000
One and two year legal tender notes	[illegible]
One year certificates of indebtedness	[illegible]

Three fourths of these issues were totally unnecessary and contrary to sound advice and to the experience of the past.

With a knowledge of the growing burdens of the Government in 1862, the surplus capital of the country should have been absorbed in a thirty year loan at six per cent even at seventy five cents per dollar. The urgent friends and defenders of the administration implored the policy, how unfortunately it was inflicted upon a generation of our people. The New York Commercial Advertiser, one of the able defenders of the Government, says in June 1864:

All the errors of our financial policy (from the issue of legal tender notes to the present day) are direct and grand family and presumption. The combined experience of the civilized world has demonstrated the evils [illegible] legal tender notes wherever and whenever issued. [illegible] gives the reasons why governments cannot supply a proper paper currency and shows why every attempt to force governmental currency upon a people injures not only the nation at large, but more especially the government resorting to such a measure to supply its wants. Every arbitrary measure to force down the price of gold and raise the price of currency, is an error [illegible] credit depends upon the [illegible] basis [illegible] credit of private individuals, to wit, confidence. Credit cannot be called into life or fostered into vigor by force or [illegible].

The creation of a large volume of paper money payable on demand, instead of deferring payments to periods of twenty and thirty years has led to an advance of prices fully one hundred per cent beyond those current in 1861 and 1862. Every contract entered into by the Government since July 1862 has been based upon irredeemable paper, and the losses to the Government thereby have been at least five hundred millions of dollars. This is only a small part of the evils. The contracts by and between individuals have been affected in a similar ratio and the aggregate loss by the people is far beyond that sustained by the general Government. The Evening Post (one of the ablest defenders of the administration except as to its finances,) said very properly in their paper of the 10th June: "We have tried the strength of legislation and found the statutes availed us little while the volume of currency kept expanding. We have indulged in denunciations with no better result. Many a man has tasked his brains to prove that there was no actual depreciation in the paper money of the Government, but that the enhancement of the values was caused (not occasioned) by wild speculation. And still gold kept going up, up up ward, until we find it close upon one hundred per cent premium." It has since reached one hundred and ninety premium.

II The neglect to give seasonable notice to holders of the five per cent loan due January, 1865, as to the money in which such bonds would be liquidated.

Repeated applications were made to the Treasury by holders of these bonds, in October and December 1862 for information as to whether the bonds would be paid in specie or in paper. The premium on gold then ranged from 25 to 30 per cent. No public notice was given to this effect, and many of the holders, in suspense up to the 31st December, as to the mode of liquidation, were induced to sell out at a sacrifice. All this could have been obviated by a fair notice of sixty days or more, as to the real determination of the Treasury. It is generally supposed in New York, that certain prominent brokers had a clue in advance as to the manner of payment that would be and actually was adopted.

III The recent action in Congress as to the sales of or dealings in gold has been ascribed to urgent intervention on the part of the Treasury in the halls of legislation.

The passage of the gold act will long be remembered as the acme of folly at Washington. The best friends of the administration at New York, and those most familiar with commercial and financial affairs have deprecated any movement of the kind by Congress and have warned members of the ill effects of such absurdity as an attempt to control the movements of commercial circles—but in vain.

It is as well known as the sun at noonday, that the fluctuations of, and advance in gold, in this and other markets, are produced in a very slight degree only by operations at the Stock Board. The true cause of such changes lies in the large volume of paper money—in enhanced prices of commodities—in extraordinary importations from abroad, and in the inevitable demand for all the gold we can produce to liquidate such importations.

THE TRUE NIGGER-WORSHIPPERS —Some years ago, when the pro-slavery Democracy were in the ascendant in this State, De La Torre, the United States District Attorney in San Francisco, made a speech at a grand political barbecue, in which he complained most eloquently of the injustice done "our Southern brethren" in excluding their slaves from the Territories. De La Torre was a rather florid speaker, fond of big words, and an adept in the spread eagle style of Democratic stump eloquence. He said:

"Fellow citizens! reflect for a moment upon the injustice proposed to be done to our Southern brethren by the Northern niggerworshippers. The territories of the Union are our common possession purchased by the blood and treasure of the whole country. The broad lands of the nation were not gained by the North nor by the South but by the North and the South, and both sections are entitled to an equal interest in them. Yet the abolition incendiaries, fanatics and nigger worshippers now propose to exclude their brethren of the sunny South from their just share in the great common heritage of the nation. The Southern citizen is to be deprived of the right to emigrate to the Territories unless he is willing to submit to abolition dictation to abandon the institutions of the land of his birth and to leave behind him his household gods! Is this just? Is it reasonable? Is it not the height of oppression and tyranny? Fellow citizens I tell you that the South will never cease to insist upon her equal privilege to enter upon any portion of the national domain, carrying with her, if it shall so please her, her household gods and every feature of her cherished institutions!"

When the applause which greeted this eloquent vindication of Southern rights had subsided, [illegible] Tracy rose to his feet and before the crowd had time to realize that a Black Republican could have the audacity to speak in such a presence, got off the following reply:

"Fellow citizens: My brother De La Torre has deplored, in pathetic terms, the tyranny which forbids Southern men from going into the Territories and carrying with them their household gods! I am not sure that I understand him. What are the household gods? Is it that they cannot carry into the Territories? They can carry their religion, their Bibles, their families, their own [illegible] their property—everything but the nigger; and if the niggers are their household gods [illegible] name of Heaven, who are the nigger worshippers?"—S F Flag

ASTORIA ITEMS —By the arrival of the Sierra Nevada we are in possession of the Marine Gazette of Tuesday, from which we condense the following items:

The boys at Cape Disappointment the other day chased a large black bear till he took to the Bay and swam three miles, when he was overtaken, lassoed, and hauled on board the bark Ella, which he was purchased for $40 and will be taken alive to San Francisco.

JAMES DUFFY, HORSE SHOER—STAR SHOP! NO. 1 FRONT STREET, PORTLAND.

ONCE upon a time both a Saddler and a Blacksmith were required to work upon a Horse, but now the boots are done away with and the Saddler is required no more. And not long ago Miss Ellen Shoeing was very prevalent in this city, but now it is done away with because the best of judges pronounce it to be only fit for Cayuse Ponies, and not for American Horses.

Having had great experience in the line of HORSE SHOEING, gentlemen favoring me with a trial can rely upon having their work executed in the best workmanlike manner and upon the most reasonable terms.

BOILS.

WE READ THAT ONE OF the sore afflictions that the patient Job had to bear was that of boils and they have been found to be from that time to the present the most troublesome and painful of visitors. We have known instances where individuals were sure to have these eruptions break out upon them once a month at least. They show an impure state of the blood, and that humor of some kind is lurking there and the overplus of corruption is naturally forced to the surface of the body, making its appearance in the form of Boils. Now is it not best at once to purify the system? Do you ask what will do this? We answer Scovill's Blood and Liver Syrup. It is curing humors in every form and there is not a state in the Union where it has not accomplished the most astonishing cures. REDINGTON & CO Agents 416 and 418 Front Street, San Francisco.

AS A SPRING REMEDY, to purify and cleanse the Blood by driving out [illegible] from [illegible] humors and impurities, we assert with confidence that there is no better remedy than SCOVILL'S BLOOD AND [illegible]

MEETING OF THE COMMON COUNCIL —The regular meeting of the Common Council was held at the Council Chamber last evening.

President McCraken, to the Chair.

The following members answered to the call of their names: Councilmen Bennett, Cook, Fra[illegible] Gradon, Hurgren, Robertson, Starr—7.

The minutes of the previous meeting were read by the Clerk and approved by the Council.

Petitions were received and granted as follows: Turn Verein Association, privilege of using certain streets in moving their hall. San Francisco Brew[illegible] continuance of license.

The committee on fire and water reported favorably on the account of Chas Stoll, and a warrant was ordered to be drawn for the amount of $1[illegible].

Warrants were ordered to be drawn in liquidation of claims against the city, as follows: J H E[illegible] $11 75, H Camper $2.

The resolution authorizing the purchase of a [illegible] alarm bell for Engine Company No 4, passed.

The Mayor was invited to participate in the discussions on the City Charter, when after considerable argument the Council went into committee of the whole upon the subject.

A MUCH NEEDED IMPROVEMENT —It is a well established fact that some improvement of the ship channel at the mouth of the Willamette is needed and must necessarily be done in order that our commerce may not be interfered with during seasons of low water, so long as the present class of steamers are used. The question is one which should interest every citizen of this city. What can we expect if we allow the mouth of the Willamette to dam up? If we don't move in the matter who will? are pertinent questions, and to the point. The steamer lying at the mouth of the river at present, sends her cargo up here at the cost of about $2,000, to say nothing of what it may cost to get cargo down to her. Admitting the fact that there is not a steamship line in the world that pays better profit than the California lines to Oregon, does it help our condition any? If we do not see fit to invest capital in that kind of stock we must clear the way for those who do, and accept of what they [illegible] send us, or lose in the operation what we have. The officers of the Oregon Steam Navigation Company stand ready to assist in the work taking the proportion largely to themselves, and it behooves our residents, as parties interested, to go about the matter at once. There is no lack of water for ships in the new channel, as we understand but the great obstacle consists in snags. Formerly the deep channel ran near "Nigger Tom's Island," but a bar has been so formed as to prevent the ship's course in that direction, and now the deepest water follows close along "Pearsley's Island," and is filled with snags which must be removed. The O S N Company are willing to undertake the work and give us a fine channel, but the task is too much for them to assume wholly, and we trust a portion of the expense will be met by our citizens, that the work may be done immediately. Subscriptions will be presented to our citizens for their contributions in aid of the object.

THE SIERRA NEVADA —The steamship Sierra Nevada arrived at a point near the mouth of the Willamette river on Wednesday evening. Fearing an attempt to cross the bar, the steamer Julia brought the express and her passengers up to this city. [illegible] was engaged in bringing up her freight. The following are passengers:

[illegible] wife and daughter, Miss F W [illegible] Parker, Chas Wallace, Thos C [illegible] Mr Mooh[illegible] J. P Wheelock wife and 3 children, Miss Wheelock, W [illegible] gans, Mr Spingle and wife, Miss S Dux, J J Blum, He[illegible] Sverding, Mr Walton wife and child, [illegible] Blakely, Peece, Miss M Bradshaw, W F Ritchie, Capt John [illegible] Capt & Coe, Capt H D Gray, Miss Adams, Mr G Be[illegible] Thos Mesure, R A Coombs, Miss Mary Delaney, Mrs [illegible] Sutton and 4 children, J B Foster, W J Hickfield, J[illegible] Pinkerton, J B Bloomingdale, Mr Turnbull, J A Stro[illegible] bridge and wife, Chas Harker, A Smith, Jas Pardue, [illegible] Tustin and child, A Bettinger, B D Wright, (J G Bus[illegible] W F & Co's Manager), and 70 others.

CHINESE ALIVE —Alder street, between First and Second, presented a lively appearance yesterday. A number of the "Upper Ten," belonging to our mongolian neighbors assembled at the house of [illegible] Young, a Chinese tea merchant, for the purpose of celebrating his birth day. The party indulged in strong drink and smoking opium, until they became highly "elevated," as we outside barbarians would say, making the welkin ring with their jaw breaking "songs," and firing off about a barrel of fire crackers, to the great delight of the "melicans" who were spectators.

UMATILLA AND BOISE.—The proprietors of the Pioneer line of stages have completed their arrangements for a fast express line of coaches between Umatilla City and Boise City, and the first express will leave the former place on Monday next. This plan will furnish the readers of the MORNING OREGONIAN, on that route, with the news in advance of any other line.

DR BELLOWS' LECTURE —We are sure that our citizens will keep in remembrance until this evening the fact that Dr Bellows will lecture at the M[illegible] Church, and fill the house to overflowing. It may be the last opportunity they will have of listening to the venerable President of the Sanitary Commission.

IMPROVEMENTS AT THE FERRY LANDING —The ferry landing is undergoing some repairs on the east side of the river, that have been needed for a long time. Teams will be enabled to pass on and off the boat in future with much less fear of accident. A few planks would not be amiss on this side, at the Stark street landing.

APPLES AND OATS —We observed at one of our prominent grocery establishments on Wednesday a number of men engaged packing apples in oats, for shipment to the Boise country. The ordinary boxes are used, and it is calculated the fruit will keep better in transit over the mountains, put up in this way, and a good profit be realized on the oats, at the termination of the route.

A SURPRISE — The typos on the OREGONIAN were surprised last night by the reception of a sumptuous collation, served in behalf of the newly married proprietor of the New Columbian Hotel in this city. The boys, after doing ample justice to the repast, washed all down with a kindly toast to the prosperity and long life of Mr and Mrs Sinnot.

RUNAWAY —A team hitched to a truck wagon took fright at Couch's wharf yesterday, and ran away. The gas lamp, corner of Front and D streets was demolished, and the wagon tongue broke when they were stopped, just in time to avoid a terrible upsetting of things in the locality of the paver's work.

A TROPHY —Mr Thomas Plummer arrived in the city yesterday, from Quartzville, being the only one of the party of twenty-three, who secured any spoils from the Indian raid in the Santiam district. He rode a pony into Salem that was captured from the Snakes.

PERIODICAL AND ILLUSTRATED NEWSPAPERS —Charles [illegible] yesterday laid upon our table a fresh and liberal supply of reading matter comprising the Atlantic, Harper's, Frank Leslie's, Ladies' Friend, Dollar Monthly, [illegible] trated papers of late date, for which he has [illegible] He has a large and well assorted supply for sale at [illegible] his two stores. Give him a call.

CLAIMS AGAINST THE STATE —We learn that Hon S E May, Secretary of State, will be in this city on the 2d day of next month. Those having claims [illegible] audit will do well to call on him on that day, at the Governor's office.

SALE OF A COTTAGE IN THE STREET —By reference to the advertisement of Mr Richardson [illegible] be seen that a cottage in the street is to be disposed of at auction on Saturday.

PERSONAL —We learn that Colonel George Belden has resigned his commission and will [illegible] take up his residence in Portland.

THE advertisement of the Agents, Messrs Richards & McCraken, state the time of the steamship's departure.

REPAIRING — The fire engine of Company No [illegible] is at present [illegible] up for repairs.

Scene in the New York Volunteer Committee's Office.

A buxom Irish woman came a day or two since to the rooms of the Supervisors' Volunteering Committee with three Emerald lads in tow, about six, eight and ten years of age respectively. She pushed rather brusquely up to the table where sat Chairman Blunt, with all the qualities of lawyer, judge and jury blended harmoniously into one, and said:

"Is Mr. Bloont within? Come along up here, ye childers," turning to her trio.

"Yes, I am the man," says the jury, judge and counselor.

"Well, I've fetched the three boys for yees."

"Whose boys?" says B.

"Your own to be sure. Take them and make the best ye can of them."

Here was a nice pickle of fish. The clerks in the vicinity and the numerous spectators about pricked up their ears, looked knowingly at each other and then at Blunt.

The latter gentleman appeared for a moment a little staggered, and looked about generally and ejaculated "Ahem." It was an interesting moment and all waited for what next should be the developments.

"My boys! What do you mean?"

"Mane!" said she, "I mane that they yer own, and ye must take the care of them, for I won't. Didn't ye enlist my husband here without my consent?—put him in the nasty army, where I suppose he is shot by this time? Yes, he's left me and left me childers. As ye took him so may ye take me boys, and support them, too. He's the father of me childers, and he has left them and their mother, and without a cint to feed them with, and yor—you—you did it."

"O, be calm, my good woman," says Blunt, "let us look into this matter. Your husband enlisted, did he?"

"Yees sur."

"Well, I do not enlist any one; I only pay the bounty. Did he got his bounty money?"

"Yees, sur, he did—three hundred dollars; but niver a cint did he give to me. You had no business to give him the money. Now you've got him, take the childers wid ye."

"Well, if you insist upon it I'll take your children and put them in excellent quarters."

"And what will ye do wid them?"

"Why put them in the Orphan Asylum."

"The Orfen Asylum! The divil ye will! And do think I will have them in the Orfen Asylum, and their father isn't dead yet, and I am a living soul, their own honest mother, standing afore ye? The Orfen Asylum!"

The very idea idea seemed abhorrent to her, and she still insisted on Blunt taking upon himself the car of her children.

"Have you not seen your husband since he enlisted?"

"No, sur."

"How do you know I paid him three hundred dollars bounty?"

"Michael McGuire, who went with him, told me so."

"Now, what is your name?" says B.

"My name is Margaret Phelin."

"And your husband's name?"

"Patrick Phelin; and these are the three little Phelins—all we have."

The Supervisor directed one of his clerks to refer to the books for the name. It was soon found, with the facts also that Blunt had, at Patrick's request, deposited the money in the savings bank to the credit of his wife Margaret. Here, then, was a discovery.

Says B. to Margaret: "Patrick, you say, left you no money?"

"No, sir, and the more shame to him; for he was a good man, Patrick."

"What would you do with the three hundred dollars if you had it?"

"Bless your honor I'd put it in the priest's hands or the savings bank, and keep it safe for Pat and the boys."

"You wouldn't spend it nor fool it away?"

"In faith I would not."

"And you would bring up your boys well and send them to school?"

"Indeed I would."

"Well, my good woman, the money is all safe in the bank, and belongs to you. I placed it there for you at Patrick's request. It shows he is a good man, and you see to it that you make him a good wife while he is away."

The woman was overwhelmed with astonishment as well as gratitude at this piece of unexpected good luck, and poured out her thanks upon him whom she was a few minutes before anathematizing and in such a demonstrative manner as the native Irish alone can evince. The tables were fairly turned, and no father was wanted for the children.—N. Y. Herald, July 1st.

Oregon State Sanitary Fair.

To the Citizens of Oregon:

It is proposed to hold a Sanitary Fair at Salem, during the State Fair commencing on the 27th of September next. In view of the urgent necessity of the Sanitary Cause, and the briefness of the time allowed to make preparations, it is ar fently hoped that every friend of humanity, and every lover of his country residing in Oregon, will respond to this call.

We can say to those at a distance, that ample room and shelter will be provided for all their contributions.

In suggesting these committees we presume that some will be unable to act; to all such we would say, procure a substitute; and should there be sections of country where no committees have been appointed, individuals will please act for themselves, and come to the Fair, and see that their donations are on hand, so that no section of country will be unrepresented.

Oregon has heretofore responded nobly to these calls of humanity, and now is no time to fall or falter, while every telegram brings the sad news of brave men fallen, and the work of carnage and death still going on; shall we, while peace and plenty falls to our lot, forget our bleeding country?

To the Ladies of Oregon, we most especially plead; knowing full well that if we have their united support, success will crown our efforts. From every woman in the State we crave some article of handiwork. Every description of ornamental work which busy fingered ingenuit yean frame; in the long list of knitting, from a pair of socks to the most elaborate shawl; in needle work, from the baby's bib to the finest dress; in clothing, for men, women and children, let the variety be so complete that no want may be unsupplied. Every article of female handiwork that will bring enough to pay for time and material.

To the farmers, we look for help; let your offerings be as generous as your hearts, and as a kitchen will be one important feature of the Fair, nothing will be amiss, whether from the products of the soil, your dairy or your cattle.

From the merchant and manufacturer, miner and business man, let us have a sample of his wares, or the work of his hands; so that our young State may be fully represented in all her growing wealth and greatness.

The County Committees, whose names are below, are requested to solicit and receive contributions, and arrange for their being forwarded to Salem at the proper time. It is desired that the County Committees should appoint sub-committees to aid them in their work; each member or committee recollecting if they cannot act themselves to endeavor to procure substitutes, so that there may be neither neglect nor delay in making the necessary arrangements.

All organized Sanitary Aid Societies are invited to give this matter their especial attention.

To the Loyal Men and Women of Oregon:

Many of the patriot Ladies in different parts of the State, have expressed to me a wish to be permitted to hold a Sanitary Fair, on the grounds of the State Agricultural Society, near Salem, during the continuance of the State Fair, commencing on the 27th of September. I have not deemed it necessary to call a meeting of the Board of Managers, for the purpose of having it considered. I am very sure I do but express the sentiments of those with whom I have the honor to be officially associated, when I say that it is with pleasure that they yield to the wishes of these great-hearted women.

Resolutions of the Union National Convention.

ADOPTED AT BALTIMORE, JUNE 8, 1864.

1. Resolved, That it is the highest duty of every American citizen to maintain against all their enemies, the integrity of the Union and the paramount authority of the Constitution and laws of the United States; and that, laying aside all differences and political opinions, we pledge ourselves, as Union men, animated by a common object, to do everything in our power to aid the Government in quelling, by force of arms the rebellion now raging against its authority; and in bringing to the punishment due to their crimes the rebels and traitors armed against it.

2. Resolved, That we approve the determination of the Government of the United States not to compromise with rebels, or to offer any terms of peace except such as may be based upon an unconditional surrender of their hostility and a return to their just allegiance to the Constitution and laws of the United States; and that we call upon the Government to maintain this position, and to prosecute the war with the utmost possible vigor to the complete suppression of the rebellion, in the full reliance upon the self-sacrificing patriotism, heroic valor, and the undying devotion of the American people to their country and its free institutions.

3. Resolved, That as slavery was the cause, and now constitutes the strength of this rebellion, and as it must be, always and everywhere, hostile to the principles of republican government, justice and the national safety demand its utter and complete extirpation from the soil of the Republic. And that while we uphold and maintain the acts and proclamations by which the Government, in its own defense, has aimed a death blow at this gigantic evil, we are in favor, furthermore, of such an amendment to the Constitution, to be made by the people, in conformity with its provisions, as shall terminate and forever prohibit the existence of slavery within the limits or jurisdiction of the United States.

4. Resolved, That the thanks of the American people are due to the soldiers and sailors of the army and navy, who have periled their lives in defense of their country and in vindication of the honor of the flag; that the nation owes to them some permanent recognition of their valor, and ample and permanent provision for those of their survivors who have received disabling and honorable wounds in the service of the country; and that the memories of those who have fallen in its defense, shall be held in grateful and everlasting remembrance.

5. Resolved, That we approve and applaud the practical wisdom, the unselfish patriotism and the unswerving fidelity to the Constitution and the principles of American liberty with which Abraham Lincoln has discharged, under circumstances of unparalleled difficulty, the great duties and responsibilities of the Presidential office; that we approve and indorse, as demanded by the emergency and essential to the preservation of the nation, and as within the provisions of the Constitution, the measures and acts which he has adopted to defend the nation against its open and secret foes; that we approve especially the Proclamation of Emancipation, and the employment as Union soldiers of men heretofore held in slavery; and that we have full confidence in his determination to carry on these and all other Constitutional measures essential to the salvation of the country with full and complete effect.

6. Resolved, That we deem it essential to the general welfare that harmony should prevail in the National councils, and we regard as worthy of official trust those only who cordially indorse the principles proclaimed in these resolutions, and which should characterize the administration of the Government.

7. Resolved, That the Government owes to all men employed in its armies, without regard to distinction of color, the full protection of the laws of war, and that any violation of these laws, or the usages of civilized nations in time of war, by the rebels now in arms, should be made the subject of prompt and full redress.

8. Resolved, That foreign emigration, which in the past has added much to the wealth, development of resources and increase of power to this nation, the asylum of the oppressed of all nations, should be fostered and encouraged by a liberal and just policy.

9. Resolved, That we are in favor of the speedy construction of a railroad to the Pacific.

10. Resolved, That the national faith, pledged for the redemption of the public debt must be kept inviolate, and for this purpose we recommend economy and rigid responsibility in the public expenditures, and a vigorous and just system of taxation; that it is the duty of every loyal State to sustain the credit and promote the use of the national currency.

11. Resolved, That we approve the position taken by the Government, that the people of the United States can never regard with indifference the attempt of any European power to overthrow by force and supplant by fraud, the institutions of any Republican Government on the Western Continent, and will view with extreme jealousy, as menacing the peace and independence of their own country, the efforts of any such power to obtain new footholds for monarchical governments, sustained by foreign military force in near proximity of the United States.

They would also give information of their being appointed agents for selling Howe's

Improved to Perfection Sewing Machine,

From which all other Sewing Machines derive their very vitality—but the celebrity of those Machines throughout the civilized world, renders laudation in this advertisement superfluous. Suffice it to say that any Lady with an extensive family of small children will find a better security for "Daily Bread" in one of these Machines than in the possession of extensive fields of ripened wheat!

Likewise, the IMPROVED PARIFFER SEWING MACHINE—real and compact.

Likewise, the "NEW ENGLAND" SEWING MACHINE, a small, cheap, ingenious article. Every little Lady of five years ought to have one, as a silent monitor, teaching by its very presence the immense value of mechanical talent when combined with untiring industry.

All those Articles Cheap!!

Good people all, give us a call,
To please we expectantly wait,
With cash in your hand we are at command,
For then we can reciprocate.

PERUVIAN SYRUP,

OR PROTECTED

Solution of Protoxide of Iron,

Has been used with Great Success in Curing

DYSPEPSIA,

Affections of the Liver, Dropsy, Neuralgia, Bronchitis and Consumptive Tendencies, Disordered State of the Blood, Female Complaints, Chronic Diarrhœa, Boils, Scurvy, the prostrating effects of Lead or Mercury,

GENERAL DEBILITY,

and all Diseases which require a

Tonic and Alterative Medicine.

THE PROOFS OF ITS EFFICACY are so numerous, so well authenticated, and of such peculiar character, that sufferers cannot reasonably hesitate to receive the proffered aid.

The class of diseases for which the Syrup provides a cure, is precisely that which has so often baffled the highest order of medical skill. The facts are tangible, the witnesses accessible, and the safety and efficacy of the Syrup incontrovertible.

From well-known Citizens of Boston.

The undersigned having experienced the beneficial effects of the "Peruvian Syrup," do not hesitate to recommend it to the attention of the public.

Rev. JOHN PIERPONT,	THOMAS C. AMORY,
THOMAS A. DEXTER,	PETER HARVEY,
S. H. KENDALL, M. D.,	JAMES C. DUNN,

Certificate of Dr. Hayes.

It is well known that the medicinal effect of Protoxide of Iron is lost by even a very brief exposure to air, and that to maintain a solution of Protoxide of Iron, without further oxidation, has been deemed impossible.

In the Peruvian Syrup, this desirable point is attained by COMBINATION IN A WAY BEFORE UNKNOWN; and this solution may replace all the proto carbonates, citrates and tartrates of the Materia Medica. A. A. HAYES, M. D.,

IODINE WATER.

IODINE WATER IS THE MOST IMPORTANT DISCOVERY of modern chemistry, and it is impossible to over-estimate its influence as a remedial agent. Iodine has been considered the most useful article in Materia Medica, and many of the most scientific and practical chemists and physicians have investigated its effects upon the human system. It is to act upon the

HEART,
LIVER, KIDNEYS,
DIGESTIVE ORGANS AND GLANDULAR SYSTEM,

and to have great control over

SCROFULOUS AFFECTIONS.

Notwithstanding the zeal and ability which have been devoted to its investigation, it remained almost useless, until Dr Henry Anders, a physician and chemist of New York, after years of patient labor and experiment, discovered a chemical process which enabled him to dissolve without a solvent. This, considered impossible by the scientific world, is attested by certificates of analysis from Dr. J. R. Chilton of this city, and Prof. Booth, U. S. Mint, Philadelphia. The importance of this discovery was so highly appreciated by the Faculty that it was published in the Medical Journals, and its use recommended to practitioners (see "American Medical Monthly," July 6, 1860, page 76.)

PURE IODINE IN PURE WATER.

This valuable medicine is now available to the public for the cure of Scrofula in all its manifold forms, Consumption, Cancer, Heart, Liver and Kidney Diseases, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Nervous Affections, Dyspepsia, Bronchitis, etc.

AS A TONIC

Its operation is evinced by strengthening the digestive organs and increased nutrition of the body is the result of the employment of Iodine. The patient recovers flesh, strength and color; hitherto pale, relaxed and feeble, he becomes full, strong and florid.

Full directions accompany each bottle.

Sold by all Druggists. Price, $1 per bottle. Prepared by Dr H. Anders & Co, Physicians and Chemists, New York.

From the army hospital—the bloody battle-field—the mansion of the rich and humble abode of the poor—from the office and the sacred desk—from the mountain top, distant valleys and far-off islands of the ocean—from every nook and corner of the civilized world—is pouring in the evidence of the astonishing effects of DRAKE'S PLANTATION BITTERS. Thousands upon thousands of letters like the following may be seen at our office.

REEDSBURG, WIS., Sept. 16, 1864.

"* * * I have been in the army hospitals for fourteen months—speechless and nearly dead. At Alton, Ill., they gave me a bottle of Plantation Bitters. * * * Three bottles restored my speech and cured me.

SOUTH WARSAW, O., July 28, 1863.

"* * * One young man, who had been sick and not out of the house for two years with Scrofula and Erysipelas, after paying the doctors over $150 without benefit, has been cured by ten bottles of your Bitters.

EDWARD WOUNALL.

The following is from the manager of the Union Home School for the Children of Volunteers:

HAVEMEYER MANSION, FIFTY-SEVENTH STREET,
NEW YORK, August 2, 1863.

"DR. DRAKE: Your wonderful Plantation Bitters have been given to some of our little children suffering from weakness, and weak lungs with most happy effect. One little girl, in particular, with pains in her head, loss of appetite, and daily wasting consumption, on whom all medical skill had been exhausted, has been entirely restored. We commenced with but a teaspoonful of Bitters a day. Her appetite and strength rapidly increased, and she is now well. * * * Respectfully, MRS. O. M. DEVOE."

"* * * I owe much to you, for I verily believe the Plantation Bitters have saved my life.

REV. W. H. WAGGONER, Madrid, N. Y."

"* * * Thou will send me two bottles more of thy Plantation Bitters. My wife has been greatly benefited by their use.

Thy friend, ASA CURRIN, Philadelphia, Pa."

"* * * I have been a great sufferer from dyspepsia, and had to abandon preaching. * * * The Plantation Bitters have cured me.

REV. J. S. CATHORN, Rochester, N. Y.

"* * * Send us twenty-four dozen more of your Plantation Bitters, the popularity of which are daily increasing with the guests of our house.

"* * * The Plantation Bitters have cured me of a derangement of the kidneys and urinary organs that has distressed me for years. It acts like a charm.

C. C. MOORE, 254 Broadway, N. Y.
etc. etc. etc. etc. etc.

The Plantation Bitters make the weak strong, the languid brilliant, and are exhausted nature's great restorer. They are composed of the celebrated Calisaya Bark, Wintergreen, Sassafras, Roots, Herbs, &c. all preserved in perfectly pure St. Croix Rum.

S. T.—1860.—X.

Persons of sedentary habits troubled with weakness, lassitude, palpitation of the heart, lack of appetite, distress after eating, torpid liver, constipation, &c., deserve to suffer if they will not try them.

They are recommended by the highest medical authorities, and are warranted to produce an immediate beneficial effect. They are exceedingly agreeable, perfectly pure and harmless.

NOTICE.—Any person pretending to sell Plantation Bitters in bulk or by the gallon is a swindler and impostor. It is put up only in our patent log cabin bottle. Beware of bottles refilled with imitation deleterious stuff for which several persons are already in prison. See that every bottle has our private United States Stamp over the cork unmutilated, and signature on steel plate side label.

Sold by respectable dealers throughout the habitable globe.
